

Boot Computer with CentOS 6.x (e.g: CentOS 6.4) OS Installation CD/DVD.

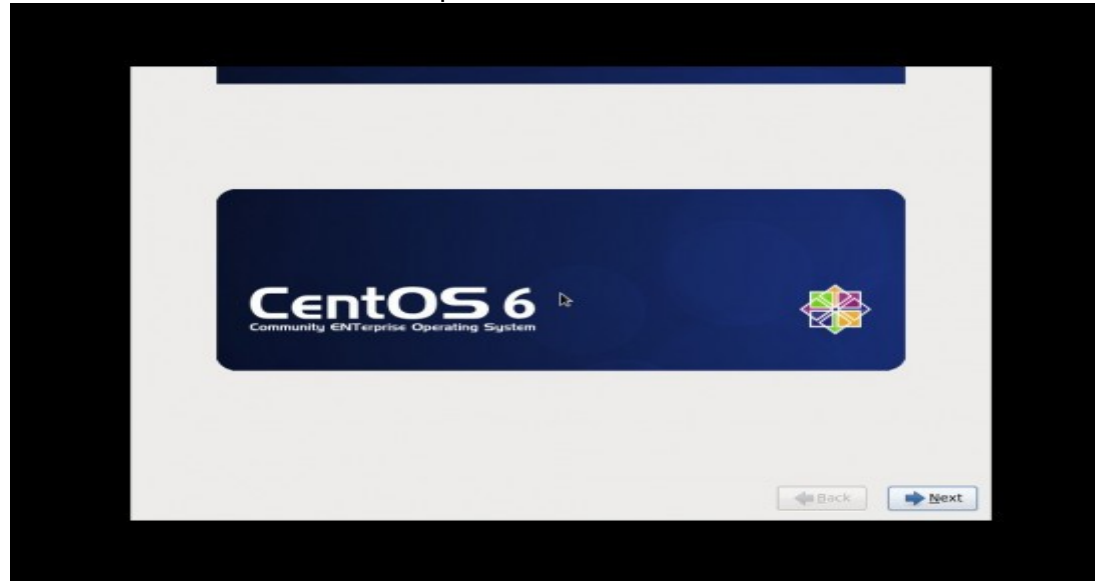

1. Select Install or Upgrade existing system options.

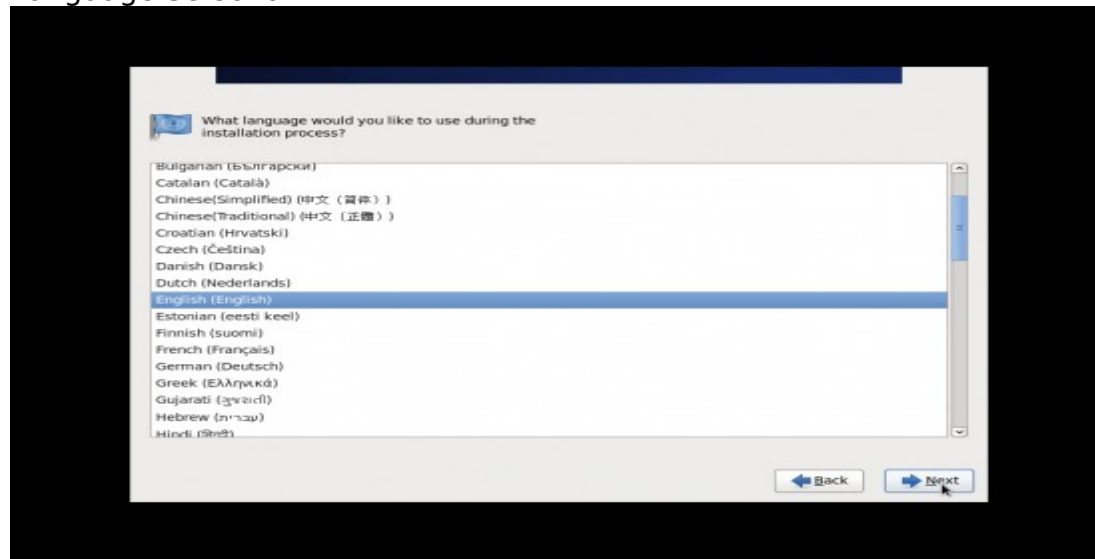

2. Choose skip media test as it may take long time to check media.

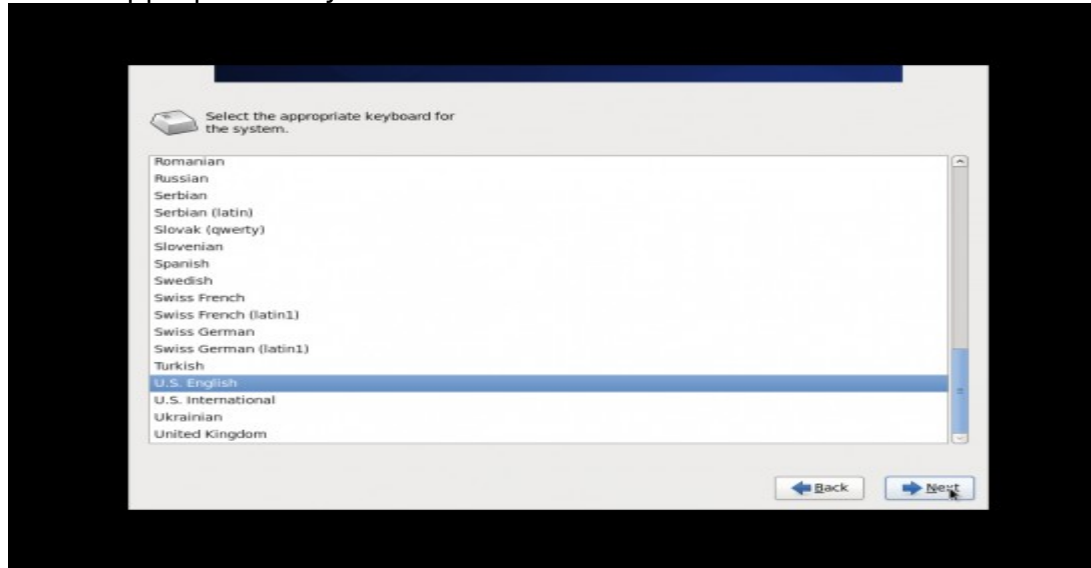

3. CentOS 6.x Welcome Screen press Next

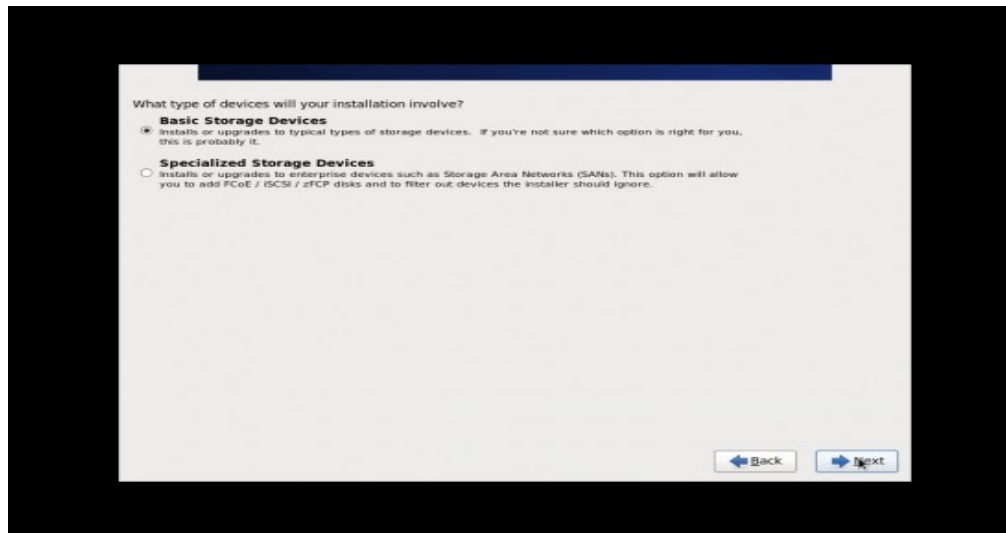

4. Language Selection.

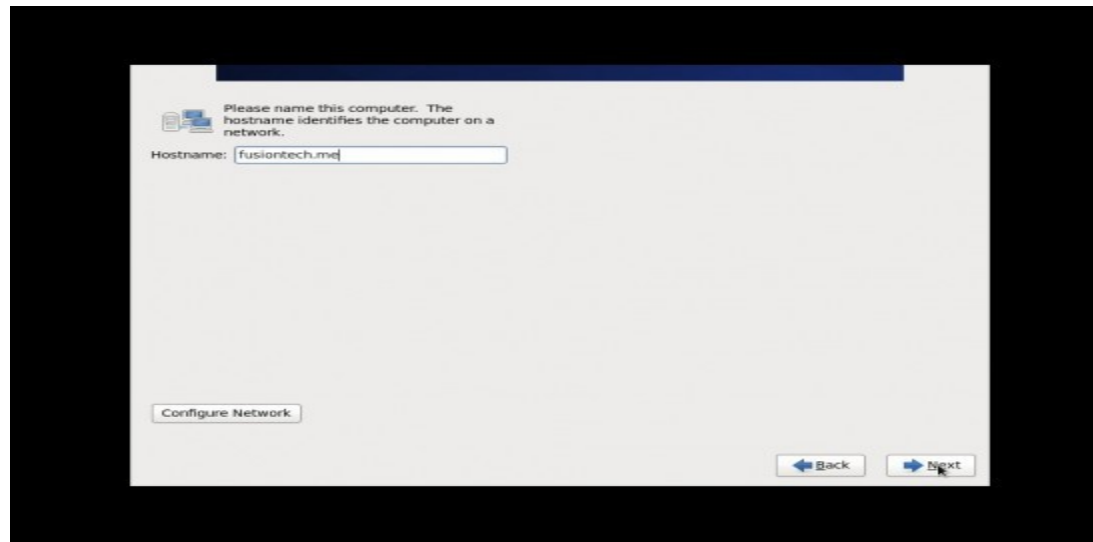

5. Select appropriate Keyboard.

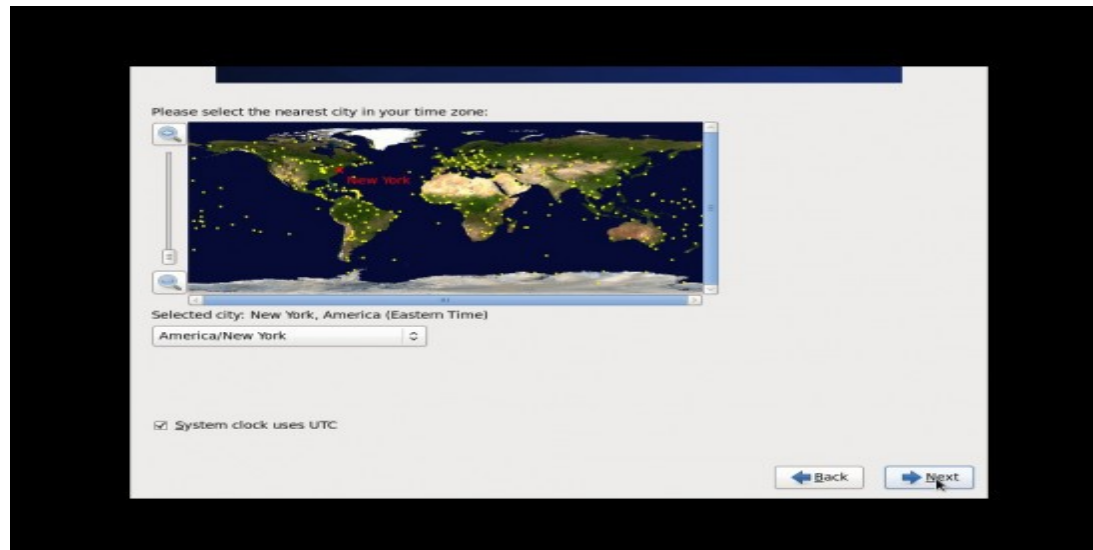

6. Select Basic Storage Device if your hard drive is attached locally

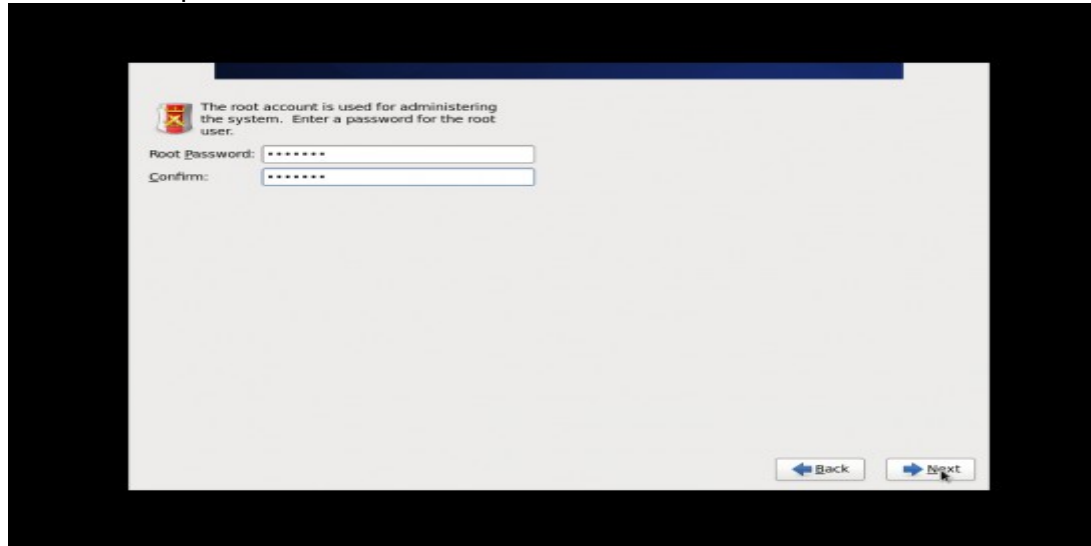

7. Give a Hostname to the server and click on Configure Network button if you want to configure network while installation.

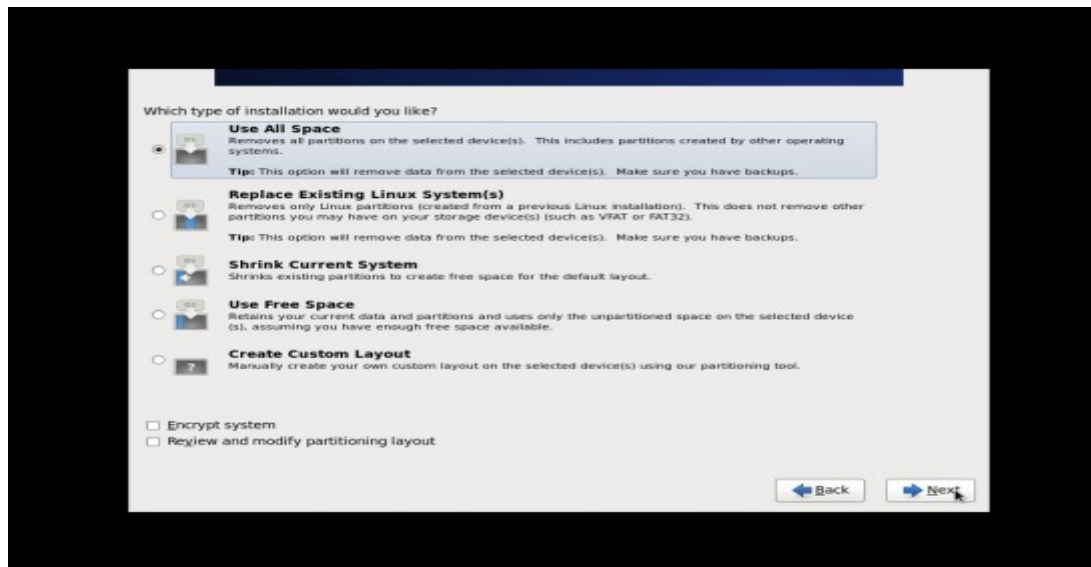

8. Select Time Zone.

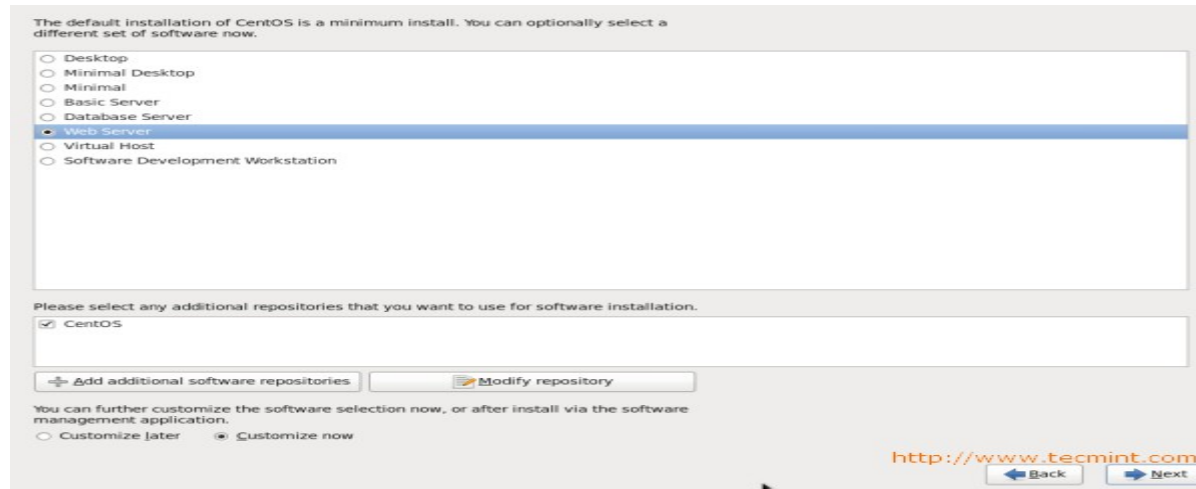

9. Give a root password.

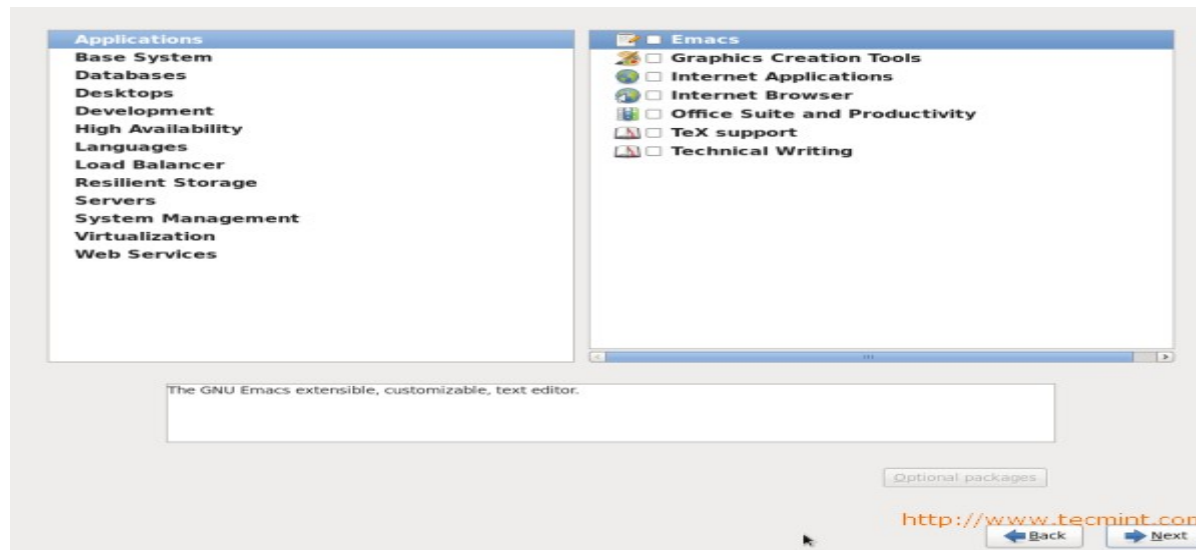

10. Select appropriate partitioning as per your requirement.

11. Select the applications you want to install, you can choose Customize now and click Next.

12. Select all the applications/packages to install and click Next.

Linux Installation (CentOS 6.x x86 64 en)

1. Install

At the screen where you choose Centos Basic Server click on Customize now and in the following screen add the following packages carefully:

- Applications: Check all right hand side packages
 Check Emacs : Click optional packages Check all
 Check Graphics Creation tools : Click optional packages Check all

- Base System: Check all right hand side packages
 Check Base: Click optional packages Check all
 Check Perl Support : Click optional packages Check all

- Databases: Check all right hand side packages
 Check MySQL Client : Click optional packages Check all
 Check MySQL Server : Click optional packages Check all

- Desktops: Check all right hand side packages

- Development: Check all right hand side packages
 Check Additional Development : Click optional packages Check all

- Servers: Check all right hand side packages
 Check Email Server : Click optional packages Check all
 Check Print Server : Click optional packages Check all

- Web Services: Check all right hand side packages
 Check PHP Support : Click optional packages Check all
 Check Web Server : Click optional packages Check all

Note: IF ANY POPUP REGARDING ANY MISSING DEPENDENCIES OCCURS, CLICK CONTINUE.

13. Installation started, this may take several minutes as per selection of packages.

14. Installation completed, Please remove CD/DVD and reboot system and login as root by username: root and give root password

